

Confession of an Artist.

Rob Arnold (Chimaira, The Elite, ex - Six Feet Under) - guitarist, composer, leader, perfectionist, one of the people who contributed to the creation of a new wave of American heavy metal in the early 2000s, and above all a very nice guy.

1) Your favorite color, dish, liquor is...

Black, pizza, vodka

2) Which place in the world would you like to visit?

Hawaii (again)

3) If you were to live on a deserted island or a crowded city you would choose...

Both... Half the year on a deserted island, half the year in a crowded city.

4) If you had not become a musician you would have be...

Probably a chef. I love to cook

5) What negative attribute of a man is the most lousy?

Incompetence.

6) What was the first cassette or CD you had bought with your own money?

Sepultura Beneath The Remains on cassette

7) Give us three albums most influential on the development of metal music.

For me it would be Metallica And Justice For All, Pantera Far Beyond Driven, and Megadeth Countdown To Extinction.

8) Which sport you watch on the TV or you train?

I love NBA Basketball. The Cleveland Cavaliers are my favorite team

9) Which situation during a tour you mention the most often?

Big shows. I love to play big shows

10) What would you do if you won 5 mln Euro in a lottery?

Finally relax.

11) What would you like to accomplish with music?

Playing jam packed arenas every night, with the fans singing along to every word.

12) An album which you would never put into your CD player?

Can't think of one. I'm fairly open minded.

13) Who did you want to become as a child?

Kirk Hammett

14) What dish you did (not) enjoy to eat but you could not say "no"?

Super spicy stuff.

15) The strangest gift you have even received from a fan?

Marijuana infused lasagna.

16) What is the worst album of your favorite band?

Lulu by Metallica.

17) What pisses you off the most in the world?

Filth or unsanitary conditions.

18) Songs/albums/bands which phenomenon you do not understand even if they are legendary?

I could never understand why Jason would have left Metallica for Echobrain.

19) The best TV show you have ever watched?

Family Guy

20) The stupidest thing you have done in your life?

I broke my shoulder a few years ago while standing on a snow sled, trying to ride it down a hill. If I could take that back, I would.

Author : Brzeznicki.